PROJECT REPORT

Project Report: Digital Platforms for Skill Development and Collaboration

Overview of Task Completion

For the Digital Ambassador program, I focused on enhancing my technical proficiency and collaborative capabilities by engaging with two industry-standard ecosystems: HackerRank for coding practice and Google Workspace for digital literacy outreach.

Part A: Coding Practice and Skill Validation

I utilized HackerRank to practice and validate my problem-solving skills. I successfully completed the Problem Solving (Intermediate) skill certification test. This involved solving complex algorithmic challenges under timed conditions, focusing on data structures and logical efficiency.

The platform's automated judge provided immediate feedback on my code's time and space complexity. This practice is academically vital as it directly aligns with my coursework in Data Structures and Algorithms (DSA) and prepares me for technical interviews and competitive programming.

Part B: Digital Literacy Outreach and Collaboration

To foster digital awareness among my batchmates, I developed a Digital Literacy Awareness Quiz using Google Forms. The form consists of five targeted questions, ranging from multiple-choice queries on cybersecurity to short-answer reflections on digital footprints. I linked the form to a Google Sheet to automate response collection and data visualization.

Academic and Professional Impact

These tools are indispensable for my academic journey. HackerRank serves as a continuous learning laboratory where I can translate theoretical concepts into functional code. Simultaneously, Google Workspace tools like Forms and Sheets streamline group projects and data management, which are essential for collaborative research and peer-to-peer teaching as a Digital Ambassador. Mastering these platforms ensures I am not only a consumer of digital content but an active, organized contributor to the tech community.
